“ I do remember Betty well. She was always kind to me and made me feel like part of the family. She sent me cards especially Christmas cards through the years and we talked on the phone from time to time. Right after I moved back here, the cards stopped. I found out that she was in nursing care at Broadmore and I went to see her. She seemed confused and didn't remember me at all. Still Betty was sweet and kind like she has always been. The one thing she did remember well was Jesus! She talked about His love and asked me to take Jesus with me wherever I go. And I assured her that I always do.

Betty was like a second mother to me. She made me feel special and loved even in the difficult times of my life. I will always treasure Betty and her family too who helped me years ago when my family seemed so far away. And now sweet Betty has gone home. I love you Betty!
