“ From the first ice cream sandwich you gave to little Jimmy and Kayla, You was no longer grandma. In our home you became the notorious "ICE CREAM GRANNY" I am so blessed to have been a part of your family and knowing such a delightful woman as you, never failing to put smiles on our faces along with the melted ice cream and sticky kisses. We love you and will never forget all the great memories you have left for us to cherish.

Always with love,

Regina, Jimmy, and Kayla Liuni

“ My Mother was a generous caring soul. She had an infectious smile that made everyone else smile. She was the ultimate optimist and could be very stubborn at times, but She loved her family and all children. Her and I shared a special bond after my husband passed and then my Dad. She will live on in my memories and I will love her forever.

“ When we were really little we called her “ice cream grandma”, she spoiled all of her grandkids and greatgrandkids with ice cream sandwiches to earn the nickname. We would visit and I remember she would be doing the crosswords from the newspaper and we would sit as she did the crossword and let me do the sudoku. I ended up getting so good and fast at doing them she would cut all the sudoku puzzles out and keep them for me for my next visit, she would have stacks and we would just sit and do our puzzles together. She was such a thoughtful woman, so loving and so kind. I will miss her greatly.

“ I worked with Penny's husband Jeff as a professional firefighter for many years in upstate NY, and have bowled with Steven and Stoney for many years. I only had the pleasure of visiting with Gladys on two occasions. I enjoyed chatting with her and found her to be a sweet and gracious lady who loved her children and was proud of them all. My deepest condolences to the family. May Gladys rest in peace in the loving arms of the Lord.

“ I have so many great memories of times shared with my grandmother that it's hard to choose just one. She shared her love of reading with me. She taught me to sew and draw and always encouraged my dreams. She kept my childhood drawings hung around her living room. One of my fondest memories is jumping rope in front of her house with my little sister. Grandma swung the rope and taught us to sing the rhymes, Cinderella dressed in Yellow and others I've forgotten. I'll always love you, Grandma.

“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Gladys. Her sweet smile and her funny sense of humor were always a welcome addition to my day. I know she is now in the arms of our loving God and well deserving. She and Mom were room mates for a long time and I will miss her sweet face. My prayers are with your family as you say your goodbyes to your precious Mother. God bless.
