“ I was just remembering the other day . . . Dad, Mom, Abby, Christian and me were driving by your house one day and Jack was mowing and was next to the road. Dad said, "Blow the horn", and I did. Dad started laughing and said Jack was ready to jump off the lawnmower. Jack looked around and saw it was us, he started laughing and waved. He told us at church he was ready to run and him and dad had a laugh about it. They are singing in that heavenly choir together once again. We love you Linda. Praying for peace and comfort for you and your family.

“ Jack was truly a faithful member of the choir at Elizabeth Chapel United Methodist Church. More impressive than that was his devotion to his wife, Linda, and family through the years. Even as health issues arose, Jack was in the church and, if possible, in the choir. Thank you, Jack, for your friendship over the years. You will be missed by many beyond your family members. Enjoy singing in the heavenly choir.
