“ Larry was a good man. I have known him my whole life. Larry and my daddy were good friends. They've done a lot of things together. I know the whole family. Larry would give you the shirt off his back, and he also has wonderful kids and grandchildren. We will miss you, Larry. May you rest in peace. Tell my daddy in heaven that I love and miss him very much, and we love you too.

“ I love you so much Papaw. My heart is breaking, but we have so many great memories together. I hope you're dancing in the sky. I hope your playing your guitar like you used to. I hope your singing your favorite songs. I know you're not in pain anymore, but I'm in pain knowing you're not here. I love you. Fly high, Papaw.
