

Rex William Eades

October 24, 1923 - July 26, 2021

Rex William Eades, 97, of Bristol, Virginia passed away on Monday, July 26, 2021 at Bristol Regional Medical Center. He was the son of the late Archer J. and Alice Green Eades. In addition to his parents Rex was preceded in death by his loving wife Justine Eades.

Rex proudly served his country in the U.S. Army during WWII where he earned at least two purple hearts. He was a member of State Street United Methodist Church.

Rex is survived by his son, Garry Eades and wife Debby of Chicago, Illinois.

A Memorial Service for Rex will be held on Saturday, October 30, 2021 at 10:30 A.M. at the State Street United Methodist Church, 650 Valley Dr., Bristol, VA 24201, with Rev. Laura Rasor, Rev. Robert Countiss and Rev. Jacob Countiss officiating.

In lieu of flowers donations in memory of Rex Eades may be sent to the Salvation Army, 137 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Bristol, TN, 37620.

The family wishes to thank the gracious staff at Oakmont in Bristol, VA, and long-term friends and neighbors Teresa and Philip Young for their support of Mr. Eades. The family would also like to give special thanks to his home health care nurse, Norman Frye, for her care and support.

“ Rex and my dad, Buddy Jones, played so much tennis together !! They even won several Senior Olympic medals for doubles tennis in their age group. Quite a feat !!

I always heard so many good things about Rex and their tennis travels and games.

May God bless the family and my prayers go out to you all.
