Comments

“ Bob led me to ministry. And he was always welcoming with a smile and open arms. His pockets were filled with bubble gum and other treats, for friends who opted out of gummy snacks. When asked how he was, his consistent response was, “Mean as a striped snake.” He was faithful at church and loyal with his service. My heart grieves at his loss but he will forever be remembered.

“ I spent many mornings talking to Bob before our Sunday service. Him and June came on Wednesday to the early service. I always enjoyed seeing young and old holding their hand out for him and candy
You will be missed Bob, but your suffering is over here on Earth.
Prayers for your family, your 2 boys and June
